COMMENCEMENT

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS CHICAGO
May 2–5, 2024

DONALD J. EDWARDS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

On behalf of the University of Illinois Board of Trustees, and as a proud alumnus, I am honored to bring greetings and congratulations to the Class of 2024.

I hope that these past few years and your experiences here at UIC have been some of the best, most rewarding . . . and most challenging . . . of your lives.

Although it has been quite a few years since I sat in your seat at my own graduation, I still remember the mix of excitement and anxiety I felt, not knowing exactly what the future would hold. That is understandable. But rest assured that your experiences here, both in and out of the classroom, have provided you with the foundation to succeed and flourish.

Now you can take that foundation and build on it. Follow your passions, never stop learning, and you will find your own unique path.

As you take the next steps in your life's journey, know that you carry a bond that forever connects you to your years on this remarkable campus. You are joining one of the world's largest alumni networks—more than 800,000 strong from across the University of Illinois System's three best-in-class universities. You will find us in just about every country on Earth.

I hope you will carry our flag with pride, with your successes adding to our global reputation for excellence and attracting the new generations of students who want to follow in your footsteps. I hope you also will come back to campus often to share your achievements, your experiences, and your insights.

And, as you are out in the world building your career and making it a better place, know that those of us back here at the U of I will still be working for you, ensuring that the value and prestige of your UIC degree will continue to grow.

Congratulations again, Class of 2024!

TIM KILLEEN

PRESIDENT

To the Class of 2024, congratulations!

You now sit before a door that opens onto opportunity, and your years at the University of Illinois Chicago have prepared you well.

The memories you have made on the way to this moment, the friends and colleagues who are now a part of your lives, and the exploration you have undertaken these past few years have transformed you and given you the keys to what lies ahead.

And now, with commencement, you can enjoy a well-earned sense of pride and achievement.

Your accomplishments and your ability to adapt and innovate, as well as the sense of civic responsibility you have shown during your time at UIC, will serve you well in the years ahead.

Take some time today, though, to reflect on this milestone and all that you have learned along the way. Today is among the small handful of days in your lives that you will remember for as long as you live. Savor it, every minute.

As you do, celebrate with those who believe in you and have supported you along the way.

In the future, when you return, we look forward to sharing in your discoveries and successes.

I am deeply honored to celebrate with you.

Congratulations again, Class of 2024!

MARIE LYNN MIRANDA, PHD

CHANCELLOR

To the UIC Class of 2024:

Today marks the culmination of your hard work, dedication, and commitment to academic excellence. It is a privilege to celebrate your achievements alongside you and your loved ones and to recognize this important milestone in your lives.

I am sure you know by now just how special UIC is. We are very intentional about putting students at the center of all that we do. In these past few years, you have developed mastery of a discipline and been equipped with the essential skills to navigate the complexities of life. UIC has also worked to foster a sense of belonging, inclusion, and personal growth. UIC is where you made new friends and meaningful connections to advance your career and enrich your worldview. You have also made important contributions to our campus community and added to the unique and diverse tapestry that defines us.

As Chicago's only public research university, UIC remains deeply committed to providing the broadest access to the highest levels of educational, research, and clinical excellence. The research and innovation that take place at UIC are improving the quality of life for millions of people in Chicago, our state, and indeed the world. From shaping public policy to addressing health disparities to strengthening the resilience of our democracy, our work at UIC is helping to identify solutions to some of the world's most vexing challenges.

The world is more interconnected than ever, and technology is advancing at breathtaking speed. Despite these advances, we are still grappling with inequalities, social injustice, climate change, and generating sustainable growth for successive generations. As you leave campus, know that you will make important contributions toward the betterment of the world around you.

The knowledge you gained and the habits you developed at UIC will remain relevant across your personal and professional lives for decades to come. As a UIC graduate, you are now part of a distinguished family of over 320,000 alumni around the world. I hope that you stay connected with your classmates, professors, and our very supportive staff.

You are prepared for an exciting future, one that I know you will embrace with confidence and readiness to contribute. I encourage you to stay curious and continue to learn and discover. On behalf of the entire UIC community, I extend my warmest congratulations. We are so very proud of you and wish you every success.

SANDY WAYNE

DEAN

Dear Graduates:

Congratulations and best wishes to all our graduates! This wonderful achievement is the culmination of all of your hard work. But this is not an ending. We call it commencement because it is the beginning of your journey. You will now take the skills and lessons you learned from your professors and classmates out into the business world to share with your new colleagues.

At UIC, you have had the opportunity to learn with classmates from around the world. I hope you recognize the value in diversity. In our global economy, knowing how to interact with diverse groups is a valuable asset. You will always come out ahead when you can accept and respect other cultures and customs. Recognizing and meeting the changing needs of diverse clients will help you thrive in your careers. I hope you will take this experience and build on it. Have the courage to meet people of different faiths, nationalities, and opinions. Don't silo yourself in the workplace, but have an open mind and you will succeed in building positive relationships.

You now join an impressive network of alumni, many of whom reside in Chicago and others who have spread across the globe.

Through various industries, our alumni are making their mark on the global economy. They are examples of the success a UIC business degree can bring. With the knowledge and experience you have gained over your years here, you can set out on your own unique path to success. Reach out to other alumni and use them as examples of what you can do with your career. Set goals and then exceed them. Set a path and then change it. Take risks. The business world is constantly changing, as should you. Take advantage of every connection. Keep in touch with our career center. Even though you celebrate the achievement of graduation today, never stop learning. Keep up with changing trends. Get an advanced degree. Always stay competitive.

Thank you for choosing UIC as your home for the past few years. You have added to our legacy of diverse, hardworking students. As you start down the path to becoming tomorrow's business leaders, I hope that you will keep in mind those who come after you. Stay in contact, share with us your successes, and tell us how we can continue to support you as your alma mater.

On behalf of the entire College of Business Administration, I wish you success and happiness in whatever path you choose. Congratulations again!

Dean Sandy Wayne and the College of Business Administration faculty and staff welcome you to the spring commencement exercises, recognizing the accomplishments of our graduate and undergraduate students.

ACADEMIC DRESS

Academic dress, consisting of cap, gown, and hood, originated about the twelfth century and was worn primarily for warmth. Subsequently, material of the gown and the lining and the shape of the hood represented the economic and social as well as the academic status of the wearer.

In the United States, the great majority of the academic costumes now worn are in accordance with the general provisions of the Intercollegiate Code of 1895, which was revised in 1932 and again in 1960. Under this code the bachelor's gown has pointed sleeves, the master's gown has oblong sleeves with an arc at the bottom, and the doctor's gown has bell-shaped sleeves. All gowns were originally black, although the adoption of colored gowns by individual institutions in the United States is becoming more prevalent.

The bachelor's and master's gowns are untrimmed. The doctor's gown is faced down the front with velvet and has three bars of velvet across the sleeves. The facing and bars may be black or may be the color of the subject to which the degree pertains. Material of the gown and hood for the bachelor's and master's degree is usually of cotton poplin, and for the doctor's degree, of rayon or silk ribbed material. The bachelor's gown is worn closed; the master's and doctor's gowns may be worn open or closed. Women may wear white collars with the bachelor's gown when no hood is worn.

The hoods, which differ in length for the three degrees, are lined with the official colors of the university or college conferring the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. The bachelor's hood is three feet in length; the master's hood is three and a half feet, and the doctor's hood is four feet long. At the University of Illinois at Chicago the lining of the hoods is flame and indigo. For PhD students, the trim of the hood is indigo. For other doctoral students and for master's students, the velvet trim at the edge of the hood denotes the field of study. UIC graduating seniors do not wear hoods.

The mortarboard cap is standard in the United States. Usually all tassels are black, but where the graduating seniors do not wear a hood, as at the University of Illinois, the color of the cap tassel indicates the type of degree earned. Students receiving a bachelor of arts degree wear white tassels; those receiving a bachelor of science degree wear gold. Doctor's caps may have tassels of gold thread. At the University of Illinois, candidates for degrees wear tassels on the right front quadrant of their caps before degrees are conferred and change them to the left front quadrant after degrees are conferred by the president. Caps are considered a part of the costume.

Gold, silver, and bronze cords worn by some graduating seniors signify the three levels of University Honors. Gold cords signify summa cum laude, silver cords signify magna cum laude, and bronze cords signify cum laude. Gold stoles identify graduates who are members of the Honors College. Red cords distinguish students who have been recognized for service and/or leadership. Some students also wear cords or stoles signifying their membership in campus organizations or activities. The Jewel of Office and gold collar, which is worn by the president, was presented to the university by the University of Illinois Alumni Association. It is emblematic of the Office of the President and is worn at all formal academic ceremonies. On the collar are engraved the names of the presidents of the university and their years of service. Trustees of the university are identified by their blue gowns with blue velvet panels outlined in orange cord.

For all academic purposes, the colors associated with the different subjects are as follows:

Agriculture	Maize
Applied Health Sciences	Green and Gold
Architecture and the Arts	Brown
Business Administration	Royal Blue
Dentistry	Lilac
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Engineering	Orange
Forestry	Russet
Health Professions Education	Gold
Journalism	Crimson
Law	Purple
Liberal Arts and Sciences	White
Library Science	Lemon
Medicine	Green
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Oratory (Speech)	Silver Gray
Pharmacy	Olive
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Public Administration	Peacock Blue
Public Health	Salmon
Social Work	Citron
Theology	Scarlet
Urban Planning	Wedgewood Blue
Veterinary Science	Gray

(UIC does not offer all of these degrees; however, faculty and platform party members may hold degrees in these areas.)

This program contains official lists of names of graduates who received degrees in summer and fall 2023 from colleges that did not participate in fall commencement and unofficial lists of names of candidates for spring 2024 graduation. The names of spring 2024 graduates are as accurate as possible. However, due to printing deadlines, the names of some degree recipients may not appear, while names of degree candidates may appear even though they have not completed their degrees. The University of Illinois Chicago's official registry for conferral of degrees is the Office of Admissions and Records.
